Join the Niagara Chapter for its sixth Annual Dinner with guest speaker, award-winning winemaker, Darryl Brooker. Hillebrand's Executive Chef, Frank Dodd, has prepared a special menu for the Ontario Wine Society with dishes matching the wines selected by Darryl. We will have the Vineyard Pavilion all to ourselves for dinner. The evening's menu is attached.

Darryl Brooker has a B.Sc. in wine science from Charles Sturt University in New South Wales and a graduate diploma in wine business from Adelaide University. He was assistant winemaker at Mountadam in Australia's Barossa Valley and then winemaker for Villa Maria in New Zealand. Darryl was led to Canada and the Niagara Region because of its outstanding potential to produce world-class wines at every level. He worked in Canada first as a winemaker for the initial two vintages at Flat Rock Cellars in Jordan, before taking on his current role as senior winemaker for Hillebrand and Trius.

Chef Frank Dodd graduated from Durham College in 1991 where he took his apprenticeship. He has rarely stepped out of the kitchen since then. Frank has worked at some of the world's finest dining establishments including: The Savoy and Dorchester Hotels in London as well as the Cliveden Hotel, one of Britain's finest country houses. Since coming to Canada in 2000, he has worked at Biff's, Vancouver's Wedgwood Hotel, and Langdon Hall before taking the Executive Chef position at Hillebrand Winery Restaurant. Cooking is his true passion in life and he shows this passion through his meticulous attention to detail in the kitchen.

Chef Dodd loves to focus on the finest seasonal ingredients and strives to produce innovative seasonally-inspired menus that enhance Winemaker Darryl Brooker's wines.
