Join the OWS for an evening of sampling that irresistible combo, wine and cheese. And not just any cheese, but delectable world-renowned fine aged cheddars produced by Balderson Cheese. This event will be hosted by John Nadeau, co-founder of The Wine Establishment and consultant to Ontario's wineries.

The event will pair Balderson's Extra Old White Cheddar (aged up to 18 months) with a 2006 Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon, Single Vinyard, Queenston Road Vineyard, a 3-Year Old White Cheddar with a 2006 Reserve Merlot, Creekside Estate Winery, and a 6-Year Old Cheddar with 2005 Reserve Meritage, also from Creekside Estates.

This event is open to OWS members or non-members, but attendees must be 19 years of age or older.

Register for this event on-line at ontariowinesociety.com/Upcoming Events/Oakville Chapter, or by mail using the registration form below. Seating is limited, so be sure to register early.
